

The Jesus Call

A collection of Missional Reminders

by Leslie Bailey

Luke 10:02

Then He said to them, "The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest."

Matthew 28:18-20

And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. ¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

Jesus calls us to pray for the laborers and also calls us to Go and be the laborer.

But many of us don't know how to BE the laborer. You may not be able to GO very far, but whatever sphere God has put you in, He has sent you there! You get to influence a small world of people in your home, in your neighborhood, and wherever God takes you - YOU are a vessel and therefore His laborer in the lost and broken world around you.

You may have a simple message of God's love, but God can use even that.

All He wants is our willingness to pray and to go.

Ways to Support A Missionary

Pray - In prayer we can make a difference in the spirit world.

In Luke 10:02 Jesus tells us to pray for missionaries to go forth into the harvest field. We can lift up missionaries and pray that more would receive the call to go and obey the words of Jesus and His call to go out into the world to share His life-changing message of love and mercy.

(Real mom tip: set your alarm for 10:02, as a reminder!)

We can also pray specifically for the missionaries we know personally.

How to pray: That the Holy Spirit would bring them encouragement, joy, peace, and provision in their ministry work.

Befriend your missionary. Sending texts, emails, scriptures, and funnies can lighten their load. Ministry can be lonely. They aren't super-humans. They need friends too.

Give! If you can afford to, give monthly or towards projects that they need funds for occasionally.

Where our treasures are, our hearts will follow. Want to be more active in missions? Want your heart to lean more towards missions? Start giving towards missions!

How do I choose which mission to give towards?

Start by praying and personally make contact with the one God highlights to you. Connection is key. Know where your money is going. Being led by the Spirit of God is strategic and not random.

Other ideas to bless your missionary:

- Send a care package!
- Learn their birthdays and make it special.
- Advocate for them and share their stories and newsletters with your Bible study group and friends.
- Host them! Invite them to share their stories and vision with your congregation or ladies' group.

Evangelism statistics:

How old are people when they get saved?

Most people come to Christ as children. How important is the ministry to children? By these statistics, shouldn't we have a great, big focus on children in our neighborhoods, churches and in missions?

Launching into Missions

by Moriah Bailey

What does it look like to be called into missions as a young teen girl?

When I was twelve, God had put in my heart that, one day I'd serve Him as a missionary.

When I was sixteen, He told me to graduate a year early so I could get started as soon as possible.

Did I know where He wanted me to go? No. Did I know how I would be going? Nope.

Did I know that He would show me when the time was right? Yes.

Excepting that I wouldn't have a normal life, was hard at times, but the Lord showed me that He was worth it all. Every sacrifice is worth it for Jesus.

I get asked all the time if I'm going to college or what I plan to do as a career and replying that God has called me to be a missionary excites me every time.

It's a calling that sometimes feels so big, but God doesn't distant Himself from me when I feel overwhelmed, He comforts me and encourages me, reminding me that He and I are doing it together.

Now the question was, how do I start?

And that's when YWAM's DTS comes in.

YWAM (Youth With A Mission) is a worldwide missionary organization that runs different schools and programs, one of their main ones being a Discipleship Training School, a DTS.

A DTS is a five-to-six-month program that is split up into two sections. Lecture Phase and Outreach Phase.

During the entire program you are taught from different missionaries and teachers from around the world how to dive deeper into God's word and listen to His voice and then going out to different countries to listen for God's words THEN obey by sharing the Gospel to different cultures and peoples.

The DTS is the perfect launching pad for young people who are called into missions to start out and see what God unfolds in their lives.

On March 19th I am flying out of the US to Malaysia for my DTS to start out my missionary journey.
